1. The personnel strength of VPD Prora has decreased considerably. Many of its members have been released, some due to political unreliability. Many of its officers have been transferred to other units and to the HVA. A considerable number of the lower ranking officers of the unit has been transferred to officers' schools, mostly to the armored school at Primerwalde.
2. The armored vehicles assigned to the 7th Sonderabteilung will be sent to Hennigsdorf for repair. These include one T-34 tank, one self-propelled artillery mount, one armored patrol car, and four caissons of British origin. The unit is to be equipped with new tanks and armored cars.
